

Tierra Acres training Facility

Agreement

I acknowledge that the guidelines, rules and/or regulations have been made available to me and that I understand their contents.

I agree to hold Tierra Acres, its agents, employees and owners or lessor of the premises, harmless from any claim for loss or injury which may be alleged to have been caused directly or in directly to any person, animal, or thing by the act of any person, animal, or thing, or any other cause or causes, arising out of or in consequence of my participation in and/or with any of the aforementioned parties.

I assume the sole responsibility for my own wellbeing and that of my animal(s) and things and personal items and /or any other persons, animals or things in my custody while present at/in and /or with any of the aforementioned parties. I will be financially responsible for any injury that is directly or indirectly caused by my pet, myself, or any persons in my custody to other persons, pets, and personal property. To include but not limited to hospital bills, doctor bills, veterinary bills, and property damage. I understand that dogs are animals and are inherently unpredictable, and will use due diligence in controlling my pet at all times.

I understand that there are no guarantees in dog training and directions and advice given may or may not achieve the desired effect.

I understand that there will be no money returned once classes or private lessons have begun.

I understand that this applies to private lessons held anywhere as well as lessons held at Tierra Acres.

I understand that my picture may be taken and used for advertisement with no compensation.

I confirm that I am not sick, have no fever, and have not been in contact with anyone know with Covid -19 in the past two weeks.

I understand that these statements will be in force for the duration of all of the classes that I participate in now and in the future and that this agreement has no expiration date.
